

SURRENDERS TO OFFICERS AFTER FLEEING JAIL

William Francis Swope, 23-year-old Emmitsburg resident who escaped Thursday afternoon from Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz as he was about to be led into the Adams county jail, surrendered himself to the sheriff Friday night.

The escapee had gone to Emmitsburg, after eluding the sheriff and other officers in a search Thursday night along Rock creek. He telephoned the sheriff's office from Emmitsburg about 10 o'clock Friday night to ask that the sheriff come for him.

Swope told the sheriff that "I knew I did something wrong when I ran away and I wanted to give myself up so you would get the credit." Enroute to Gettysburg with the sheriff, Swope said that he bolted from the sheriff's car, just before being placed in jail, "because I was afraid I was in jail for six months before and wasn't able to get bail and I was afraid I'd be in at least that long again."

In Contempt of Court
The Emmitsburg man had been arrested previously on a charge of contempt of court for failure to make payments on an order for support of a child. He served some time in jail and was released upon promise to make the payments. When he failed for a year to make good on those promises he was arrested again Thursday on a warrant for contempt of court.

Sheriff Schultz took Swope into custody Thursday afternoon at the Fairfield shoe company where Swope was employed. When the sheriff and Swope arrived at the jail that afternoon, the sheriff got out one side of the car and Swope bolted out the other. The sheriff chased Swope as far as Rock creek, and lost sight of the fleeing prisoner in brush along the east bank of the stream.

Friday night Swope called the sheriff's office and Mrs. Schultz answered the phone. The sheriff at the time was continuing his search for the escaped prisoner.

Watched Searchers
Upon the sheriff's return to the office a few moments later, he was told of Swope's call and Swope's statement that he would be waiting at 209 East Main street, Emmitsburg. The sheriff called Maryland State Policeman Kenneth Bond at Thurmont, who said he would meet the sheriff in the square at Emmitsburg. Eugene Sickles accompanied the sheriff to Emmitsburg where they met Bond. As the sheriff's car drew up in front of the residence Swope had mentioned, Swope came walking across the sidewalk to the car.

Enroute to the jail, Swope said that he had crawled under brush along Rock creek and had watched the sheriff pass within a few feet of him in the tangled undergrowth. He heard searchers looking for him, he added, and several times persons were within a few feet of him.

Later as the search seemed to move elsewhere, Swope said, he continued hidden in the thicket until he heard the court house clock strike 11. Swope said he then returned to the Harrisburg road, near WGET, and crossed on Howard avenue to the Biglerville road. He walked through Gettysburg and hitch-hiked a ride to Emmitsburg.

By 11:15 o'clock Friday night he was behind bars at the prison, 32 hours after he had fled from the sheriff.

M.E. INSTALLS TRANSFORMERS

The Metropolitan Edison company late Friday afternoon completed the installation of three new transformers at its Biglerville transformer station which will double the company's capacity of electric power for the area.

The transformer station serves Biglerville, Arendtsville, The Narrows, as far south along the Biglerville road as Keckler's hill, Heidlersburg, Flora Dale and Brysonia.

Three 500 KVA transformers at the Biglerville station were replaced with three 1,000 KVA transformers. While the changeover was being made, the Metropolitan Edison maintained service throughout the area by using a new portable 2,000 KVA transformer mounted on a trailer, which was cut in on the Biglerville road 13,200 KVA feed line near Biglerville.

This marked the first time that the portable outfit had been used in Adams county. It is valued at $35,000 and was constructed for emergency use in the western district of the Metropolitan Edison.

LIBRARY BUYS 1,000 BOOKS FOR YOUNG READERS

Setting a pace for increasing its book supply that the Adams County Free library hopes to maintain or increase annually, 1,000 books for children and young people are being purchased this year. It was revealed at the June meeting of the library's board of directors Friday evening.

Mrs. Lillian L. Snyder, librarian, told the board the thousand new books, which will go on the bookmobile for distribution throughout the county in September, will cost about $2,000.

The library board budgeted $2,900 for "books, periodicals and binding" at the beginning of the year. In addition to the $2,000 for new juvenile books, possibly $500 will be spent for adult books, both fiction and non-fiction. The remainder of the budgeted sum will go for periodicals and bindings.

Seek Funds From County

HOSPITAL SETS NEW RECORDS IN LAST 12 MONTHS

The Warner hospital admitted the largest number of patients in any year of its history during the fiscal year ended May 31, and during the same year established a new record of births. These facts were highlights of the annual report submitted by Administrator Walter R. Doud to the board of directors at their June meeting Friday evening in the board room of the Musselman Memorial Annex building at the hospital.

Births totaled 860 which was 57 more than last year's record high of 803.

The number of patients admitted totaled 3,617 and while this is the highest number of admissions on record in the 30-year history of the hospital, the total number of patient days were 484 less than last year due to shorter hospitalization periods for many types of cases.

Charity Service High
Patients days during the year totaled 25,313, an average of 70 patients per day. The expense of in-patient care was $236,744.43 or $9.35 per day while cash income from in-patients totaled $303,824.54 or $3.05 per day.

Out-patient visits were 9,890 while out-patients treated totaled 9,225. Cash income from out-patients totaled $38,281.82 or $3.77 per visit while expenses for out-patients aggregated $31,316.52 or $3.17 per visit.

During the year the hospital rendered charity services of $21,837.17 value which was 7.6 per cent of total income. Bad debts incurred during the year aggregated $9,565.01 or 3.3 per cent of total income.

Much Equipment Added

In his report Administrator Doud listed major repairs made to the physical plant and additions to equipment for use of the medical staff in the treatment of patients.

These included a new electrocardiograph machine, a fracture turning frame, an infant oxygen tent, and a new lithotrite for urological procedures. A new instrument for use in skin grafting was purchased for the hospital by Dr. Bruce N. Wolf and Dr. Roy W. Gifford, hospital surgeons.

Building improvements consisted of remodeling the X-ray dark room and the installation of a new developing tank at an expense of about $3,000. The new diet kitchen on the second floor, costing $1,651 was a project of the Women's auxiliary of the hospital and was paid for by the auxiliary.

Furniture additions cost $746.18, largely defrayed by donations received through the auxiliary's room sponsorship plan. The auxiliary also purchased 16 new chairs for the hospital at a cost of $431.90.

Costs soared during the year, particularly the cost of textiles, paper products and food, the report noted. General wage increases and the inclusion of hospital employees under Federal Social Security resulted in payroll increases of approximately seven per cent per month.

Modest Rate Advance

Hospital rates were advanced modestly during the year to partially offset increased costs.

Income earned in all departments totaled $289,070.24. Salaries and wages were $155,133.17; supplies cost $44,993.07 while direct expenses were $83,605.16. Fixed expenses for insurance premiums and payroll taxes were $2,832.15. Had the hospital been paid for all services rendered, its income would have exceeded (Continued on Page 2)

BULLETINS

Denver, June 30 (AP) — An unidentified farmer reported to the state highway patrol today that a United Airlines mainliner with 49 persons aboard crashed five miles east of Loveland, Colo.

The report was relayed to United Airlines here. It sent planes and a ground party to investigate. The airlines emphasized the report had not been confirmed.

Bangkok, Thailand, June 30 (AP) — Thai navy and marine forces fought what appeared to be a losing battle today to set up a rebel government replacing kidnapped Premier Pibulsongram.

Army and navy forces fought an artillery duel in the streets of Bangkok. Some shells ripped through the American embassy, situated between opposing forces.

Apparently no Americans or other foreigners were hurt in a night of heavy fighting, said William T. Turner, American charge d'affaires.

No Communist Answer To Ridgway's Invitation For Talk To End War In Korea

Tokyo, June 30 (AP) — Every available radio in Japan and South Korea broadcast an invitation to the Communists today to talk about an end to the Korean war.

Fourteen hours after the broadcasts started, there was no hint of an answer.

The invitation from Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme United Nations commander, was addressed to the "commander-in-chief of Communist forces in Korea."

Conference Proposed
It suggested a conference aboard the Danish hospital ship Jutlandia in the harbor of Wonsan, shell-shattered Communist port on Korea's east coast.

The Jutlandia transferred her patients to the American hospital ship Haven, scrubbed out potential conference rooms, and awaited word to sail from the South Korean port of Pusan.

"We would go at a moment's notice," said Commodore Kai Hammerick.

In Tokyo a high U.N. officer cautioned: "Folks ought to calm down a little. It's my guess that not a thing big will happen for hours, at least."

Troops Quiet, Hopeful
Troops along the relatively quiet battlefield were hopeful but skeptical.

Biggest battle action was another demonstration of Allied artillery might, under the glare of 8,000,000 candlepower searchlights.

The blazing lights caught about 800 Chinese preparing to attack northeast of Kumbwa on the central front. U.N. batteries cut the Reds to pieces.

The war went on as usual for the navy and air force. U.N. planes made 200 sorties Saturday morning through overcast skies. They hit again at 15 air fields around the Red capital of Pyongyang. The fields have been bombed in 700 strikes within the last week.

Minimum Requirements

Warships rounded out their first year of action on the Korean coasts Friday night. In twelve months they have fired 2,500,000 rounds. Favorite target has been Wonsan, suggested truce port.

In its first broadcast to talk about a cease-fire, the Communist Pyongyang radio made no mention of it. Instead, the radio broadcast the usual war communique.

That was at 8 p.m. (5 a.m. EST) just 12 hours after the Allied supreme commander extended his invitation on instructions from Washington.

Meanwhile the South Korean cabinet met and laid down "five minimum requirements" under which it would accept a cease fire. They included withdrawal of Chinese troops, disarming North Korean, and no outside aid of any kind to North Korea.

Ridgway's message laid down no conditions of any kind. Nor did it mention by name either the Chinese field commander, Gen. Peng Teh-huai, or the North Korean commander, Premier Kim Il Sung.

British demand for an injunction against Iran's oil nationalization attempts.

Washington, June 30 (AP)—Because Congress has been tardy in its annual job of supplying funds to operate the government, both the House and Senate were called into unusual Saturday sessions today.

Pending was an emergency money bill supplying funds to operate all government units, including Congress itself, for the month of July. Senate and House leaders hoped to iron out minor differences on this stopgap measure during the day and then rush it to President Truman for signature before midnight opens a new fiscal year.

Washington, June 30 (AP)—President Truman has until midnight to decide whether he will accept a temporary, watered-down price control extension or abandon for at least a month his emergency powers over the nation's economy.

Congress left him no other choice when it passed yesterday a stopgap bill which would extend the defense production act for the month of July and ban price roll-backs and additional price ceilings during that period.

HOSPITAL SETS

ceded its expenses by $2,506.69. Donations included $2,900 from the county commissioners and $1,471.38 from miscellaneous sources. While the cash resources of the hospital declined nearly $7,500, inventories of textiles and surgical supplies increased by more than that amount.

Letter Campaign Helps

As has been the case for the last three years, the letter campaign provided income to enable the hospital to carry charity work beyond that paid for by the $8,400 annual state appropriation. During the fiscal year $15,247.25 was contributed by nearly 7,000 Adams countians. The cost of stationery printing and postage and stenographic services aggregated $3,741.51 netting $1,505.74.

The directors studied the finances of the hospital in detail. The three banks, who as trustees administer the $48,366.92 endowment and special trust funds of the hospital, came in for praise from the directors. These funds yield a fraction less than four percent under the administration of the banks.

The finance committee reported $52,511.27 has been contributed during the last five years to the hospital's new building fund and the board directed that $13,511.27 be placed in savings accounts in nine county banks and that $39,000 be placed under trust agreements with the three trustee banks for investments with provision that income be added to the building fund.

Board Reorganizes

This fund consists of advance subscriptions made by a number of Adams county industries and individuals in anticipation of $350,000 or $400,000 which would eventually be needed to replace the old hospital building as a patient facility.

The directors passed resolutions of appreciation and commendation of Administrator Doud and the staff of the hospital for their splendid services during the year; to C. Samuel Daley for his services during the year in auditing and supervising the accounts and preparing reports of the hospital; to the auxiliary for their many contributions and activities in behalf of the hospital and to the medical staff for its services to the hospital and its patients.

In the reorganization of the board for the ensuing year, Carl A. Baum, Gettysburg, was re-elected president; John A. Hauser, Biglerville, first vice president; Richard C. Livingston, New Oxford, second vice president; Henry M. Scharf, Gettysburg, secretary, and Philip M. Jones, Gettysburg, treasurer. All officers

DODGERS' LEAD MELTS AS PHILS TAKE 3-2 GAME

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Who stole the music to the Dodger pennant waltz? The Ebbs Field organ has been hitting clinkers lately. They could do no wrong. Then came Pittsburgh.

Even a double loss Sunday to the Pirates was charged off as one of those things. But you couldn't laugh off losing two of three to the New York Giants. Last night's 3-2 defeat by the Phillies sounded the alarm bell.

Panic is not the word for a club with a 4½-game lead. But by dropping five of their last six, the Dodgers let the pack close in. If they don't right themselves over the week-end, their lead actually will be in danger in the July 4th series with the Giants.

The runnerup Giants, rained out of a night game at Boston, picked up a half game when the Phils knocked off the Brooks behind Roberto's five-hit pitching.

Maybe Manager Eddie Sawyer had the right idea when he read the riot act to some of his too-complacent Phils. For the first time since May 12 the 1950 champs are up to the 500 mark, eight games behind Brooklyn.

Ralph Caballero, a utility infielder usually used as a pinch runner, came through with a triple—his first extra base hit of the year—to win the game in the ninth. Caballero's hit plus Del Wilber's two-run homer in the fifth were just enough to offset home runs by Jackie Robinson and Duke Snider. Erv Palica was the loser.

St. Louis and Chicago struggled through nine innings for a 6-6 tie in a game called to let the Cubs catch a train for Cincinnati. Because they played the full nine innings, this is not a "suspended game" but will be completely replayed at a later date. As in all tie games, the individual performances go into the official records. The Pittsburgh-Cincinnati game was postponed because of wet grounds.

They all played in the American with the Chicago White Sox protecting their precious half-game lead by bumping St. Louis 10-3, for the Browns' ninth straight loss.

Raschi Gets 12th
Vic Raschi kept New York right on Chicago's neck by disposing of Boston with three hits, 2-1, in a night game won by Joe DiMaggio's eighth-inning double. It was Raschi's 12th win, high in the American league.

Philadelphia, just escaped from the cellar two weeks ago, moved within a half game of sixth-place Washington by dumping the Senators in both ends of a twilight-night doubleheader, 3-2 and 11-5.

Bob Lemon, a sick man with a toothache, pitched Cleveland to a 4-1 edge over Detroit with a six-hit performance. Lemon's abashed tooth was lanced and packed earlier in the day but he became sick to his stomach and had to call time in the sixth with the bases loaded. He walked Charlie Keller for force in the only Tiger run when he returned. That was his only rough spot.

LINEUPS SOON FOR ALL STARS

Chicago, June 30 (P) — Starting lineups for the 1951 All-Star baseball game in Detroit July 10 will be announced tonight.

With the total vote heading toward a record 4,000,000, it appeared that Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals would be the poll's highest individual vote-getter. He heads the balloting with 1,274,816 votes.

Third baseman George Kell of the Detroit Tigers won the individual vote crown last year and is leading his position again this year.

Nelson Fox of the Chicago White Sox had the second highest total going into the final day's tabulation. He had 1,252,761.

Two other White Sox were leading their positions in the vote for the 18th annual interleague game. They were Chico Carrasquel at shortstop and Eddie Robinson at first base.

The 16 winners will start the All-Star game and play three innings. Other members of the 25-man American and National league squads, including the pitchers, will be selected by Managers Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, for the American league, and Eddie Sawyer of the Philadelphia Phillies, for the National league.

Philadelphia, June 30 (P) — The University of Pennsylvania again has kicked off the college football television controversy — and the battle of words gets tougher.

The dispute remains stalled at midfield, however, with neither side gaining advantage nor giving ground.

Penn's athletic director, Franny Murray, yesterday launched the new offensive against the plan of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) to control live football TV for 1951. He made public a letter disclosing that the Justice department denied it had ever approved, formally or informally, the NCAA ban.

Reading, Pa., June 30 (P) — The golfers themselves said it before but today practically everyone agreed that quiet-spoken Betty Jameson was the girl to beat in the 54-hole Women's Eastern Open.

The slim Texan with the streak of prematurely gray hair held a two-stroke lead over Babe Didrikson Zaharias and young Barbara Romack, of Sacramento, Calif., going into a second 18-hole round. The $3,500 Open at the Berkshire Country club ends tomorrow. Thirty-six pros and amateurs are competing.

Charlottesville, Va. — Top-seeded Tim Coss of Bethesda, Md., was eliminated in the National Inter-scholastic tournament.

Philadelphia — The Justice Department told the U. of Pennsylvania it had ordered an investigation of televising college football games.

Ogden, Utah — Richard Conway, Twin Falls catcher, was injured fatally when he was struck by a ball in the chest during pre-game warm-up.

QUARTER FINALS AT WIMBLEDON

Wimbledon, England, June 30 (P) — Seventeen-year-old Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., will have to control his nerves as well as his ground strokes today when he shoots for a place in the quarter-finals of the Wimbledon tennis championship.

Fifteen thousand pairs of eyes will be glued on Hamilton, the United States Junior champion, when he takes to the court against Armand Vieira of Brazil. Staid Wimbledon officials, impressed with the youngster's giant slaying tactics in eliminating defending champion Budge Patty, have scheduled the match for the famed center court—scene of many of the greatest battles in the history of tennis.

The other two Americans who are slated to go in quest of berths in the quarter-finals are Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J.

Flam, runner up to Art Larsen in the U.S. championships, plays Hans Van Swol of Holland and Savitt goes up against Josef Asboth of Communist Hungary.

The fourth member of the American delegation to make the round of 16, Larsen, jumped a step ahead of his countrymen yesterday when he landed in the quarter-finals by taking Torsten Johansson of Sweden over the hurdles, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

Three other rough and ready racket swingers—all of whom could slay down any of the American hopes, joined Larsen in the quarter-final. They were South Africa's Eric Sturgess and the top Australian Davis cup team of Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor.

Sports In Brief

Golf
Oakmont, Pa.—Chandler Harper, the defending champion, was eliminated in the PGA championship.

Columbus — Tom Nieporie and Don Johnson, both from Ohio State, advanced to final of the NCAA championship.

Reading, Pa. — Betty Jameson of San Antonio shot a 32-38—70 to take first round lead in the Eastern Women's Open.

Wimbledon, England — American Champion Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., advanced to the quarter-finals of the Wimbledon championships.

Evanston, Ill. — Tony Trabert and Buddy Igel of Cincinnati moved into the semi-finals of the NCAA tournament.

Interstate League

There was only one change in the Interstate league standings today—Wilmington's Blue Rocks climbed into third place over Lancaster.

Hagerstown's Braves, leading the league by three full games, knocked off Lancaster 4 to 2 last night but it took 16 innings to do it. It was the longest single game ever played on Lancaster's Stumpf field. Billy Smith's two run homer was the decisive blow.

Wilmington won a doubleheader from Harrisburg 4 to 2 and 5 to 4 and moved one game ahead of Lancaster in the standings. Manager Danny Carnevale's bases-loaded single in the ninth inning enabled the Blue Rocks to capture the nightcap.

Allentown, three games back of Hagerstown, walloped York 7 to 1. Al Cummins led the assault with four big hits.

The Salisbury Athletics continue to be easy pickings for the rest of the league. The A's dropped a pair to Sunbury 2 to 1 and 10 to 4 and fell to 30 full games behind first place.

Tonight's schedule: Wilmington at Sunbury, Lancaster at York, Allentown at Hagerstown and Salisbury and Harrisburg.

Nuzum Cleared In Woman's Murder

Las Cruces, N. M., June 30 (P) — Free of a murder charge, Jerry Nuzum plans to leave the end of next week to rejoin the Pittsburgh Steelers football squad for his fourth season.

The 27-year-old professional grinder was declared innocent yesterday by Dist. Judge Charles Fowler in the death in 1949 of Ovida Cogler, 18-year-old Las Cruces waitress.

The judge said the prosecution failed entirely to connect Nuzum in any way with the death of the waitress. Her body was found in a shallow desert grave south of here April 16, 1949.

Spectators in the jammed courtroom broke into applause in spite of a warning against it. Tears wet the eyes of many besides Nuzum's family.

MANGRUM AND SNEAD BATTLE

Oakmont, Pa., June 30 (P) — Although the journey of talented golf teachers has four days to go, there's a hunch around Oakmont that the 33rd PGA championship might hinge on one of today's 36-hole matches.

The feature of the eight marathons—now that the disastrous 18-holers are out of the way—is between those two Goliaths of golf, Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and lithic Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill.

Sam, who survived a "battle of the bug" rhubarb yesterday to stay in the scrap, won the crown in 1942 and 1949, and was runner-up in 1938 and 1940.

Only 16 Survived
Mangrum, 1946 National Open champ, is the year's leading money winner and his putter is smoking. He's never been too close in the PGA—and this may be his year.

Yesterday's 18-hole dashes exacted a heavy toll. Only 16 of the 64 qualifiers survived, and among the victims were the defending champ, Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., two of the three co-medalists, four former winners and six ex-finalists.

Nine of the 48 matches went extra holes, five the full route, a dozen to the 17th green, and 10 to the 16th. As dusk fell it looked like a "B" tournament, seven of the 16 survivors having last names starting with that letter.

The Snead-Mangrum victor faces a fight. Still in the running are such luminaries as Jim Ferrier, the Aus-

THROWN BALL KILLS ROOKIE

Ogden, Utah, June 30 (P) — Richard W. (Dick) Conway, a rising young player in his first year of organized baseball, was killed by a thrown ball last night.

The Twin Falls, Idaho, catcher, hit on the chest, dropped fatally injured on the infield of flood-lighted John Affleck Park as fans awaited the start of a Pioneer League game.

An emergency attendant said the 19-year-old rookie apparently died instantly in what was the Class C league's first fatality since it was organized in 1939.

Conway, a regular catcher and the league's leading home run hitter, was hit by the ball while playing in an unfamiliar first base position during pre-game warmup drills.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

FAITH — PLUS

Faith is an essential to life itself.
We can go nowhere and do nothing without it to a greater or lesser degree. But, My! How Faith dances and shows forth all its glorified colors—plus imagination.

Faith needs this imagination as a traveling companion. Great things then are achieved. Columbus had Faith but he had imagination as well. Edison, Ford, Westinghouse, and any number of our great inventors and discoverers had Faith, but they nailed their victories to the mast with imagination.

Suppose we had no Faith at all.
We would then be so full of fear we could accomplish nothing. But with a full Faith, plus imagination, fears are of no account. They are brushed aside, just the same as a big dog jogs along without the hesitation of a moment, letting the little dogs bark at his heels. Faith and imagination overpower all fear.

Look at any of the improvements and comforts of life and you will note written all over them these two words Faith and imagination. Take the automobile, for example. The first ones seemed quite grand just to go at a speed of thirty or forty miles, after getting them started by cranking them. Now they have been so improved that the greatest essential in their driving is an alert and intelligent head. Their management and perfection are so fine that if you don't use your head, there is tragedy. Faith and imagination are what have given us such a marvelous piece of transportation as the automobile.

He who starts in business for himself, or who enters upon some important specialty, needs these two essentials for success, as they are fundamental. You can hold your head high with these two—Faith and imagination—hitched to your cart! No matter what our vocation in life, however, Faith and imagination are what we all need and must have. With them we can put an additional plus sign upon an endless number of endeavors!

QUATRAINS

SUCCESS

Who reaches out a hand to aid
And makes another's burden less,
Takes fear away from one afraid,
Is for the moment a success.

UNSELFISHNESS

Never by what self is done
Is any lasting glory won.
The flame the green grass seldom smothers
Is earned by what is done for others.

ETERNAL

I thought the dandelions laughed
As I destroyed them one by one.
They seemed to say: "You'll pass away,
But we'll be here when you are gone."

BEST BET

Some bet a horse to win a race.
Some bet on wheels that gamblers spin.
My money I would rather place
To back an eager boy to win.

Riding with Russell

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
by FREDERICK C. RUSSELL
Member S.A.E.

One of the things that may not turn out right for you in motoring is the car ahead.

The Honeymoon Is Over

Another thing that worries the close observer of the motor scene is why so many people who fuss over their new cars will suddenly become unusually careless along about the end of the second year.
It results in their overlooking a lot of little warnings which add up to a major neglect. One guess is that they get this way because the new car runs along pretty well on its own. The battery always cranks.
There are no skips in the motor.
Things work beautifully. So the owner stops fussing, and begins to coast. Then things start happening.

This applies not merely to the mechanical parts of the car but to its finish as well. The owner stops bothering to wax the body. He fails to note that because he doesn't wax the chrome this is starting to rust.
He no longer brushes out the floors so dirt starts to grind into the floor covering and wears it rapidly. He already has two scratches on the right side of the body so he isn't so careful parking. All in all it is the beginning of the downhill run to needless trouble and expense.

While it is true that thin brake drums will cause the brake pedal to be quite low, giving the impression of leakage in the system, one of the most common causes of such pedal condition is need for a brake shoe adjustment. I have seen this happen right after a relining where too much clearance was allowed.
Thin drums usually follow too much grinding in an effort to correct warpage although there have been cases where drums have been too thin at the start. As soon as they heat up they expand too much.

No Patent On Trouble

It seems to surprise a great many people these days to have things go wrong with their new cars. They believe such troubles could not develop until there is a reasonable amount of mileage. This overlooks the fact of errors in assembly or things that may happen to the car before it gets into the owner's hands. Valves may stick, for example, because of too tight guides.
There may be carburetion troubles because of water in the gas. Things may loosen up because of vibration during a long delivery haul. Occasionally a new engine is handicapped with a weak valve spring.

A simple way to test a spark plug is to see how it behaves when high tension current is fed to it while out of the engine. Lay the plug on its side atop the engine so that the steel shell and the engine head are in good contact. When cranking the engine with the ignition on there should be a good spark at the points.
If the spark appears up inside the shell the plug is fouled. Set the gap to the correct clearance before testing, however.

On The Other Side

Just when everyone had been telling me that courtesy wheel is a thing of the past along comes a personal experience to convince me that people are not such a bad lot after all. I got myself into something of a jam turning into a driveway just as another driver was trying to get through a bit of construction work. Never mind the complexities of the situation. Suddenly I discovered that a chap in a big yellow convertible suitable for an underworld figure was quietly waiting for me to do some maneuvering. Behind him another fellow

ing us help you."

Try Heavier Oil

If oil mileage isn't normal the present picture should include checking to make sure you are not using too light oil. Several years ago light oil was all the vogue. Motorists were told to use it until the engine started to burn oil, and then switch to the next heavier grade.
But 30 grade oil was considered too heavy for any but old, worn engines. Today we are back to sanity in lubrication and it is not unusual for car manufacturer to recommend 30 oil for temperatures over 32 degrees above zero. So if oil mileage is down try heavier oil and a detergent to free up the rings.

From California comes news of a new way of detecting cracks and flaws in car parts which normally could not be found even with magnifying glasses. It is the result of discovery of a special fluid which, while having high capillarity, reverses the usual characteristic by having low instead of high surface tension. This substance is first brushed on the suspected part. Then it is removed with a cleaner, but if there are any flaws it has penetrated them. Finally a white developer is applied to the entire surface. It dries instantly, and if there are any cracks these will show up clearly as crimson lines on the white surface.

Keep These in Mind

Modern oil will drain off dirtier because much of it contains detergents which serve to do a cleaning job. A lot of motorists mistake this as a sign of excessive blowby.
It is unwise to assume that so long as the car stops well the brake lining has plenty of reserve. Experience has shown that hydraulic brakes will stop with practically bare shoes. But it ruins the brake drums.
Mechanic Joe Speaking:
"One of the finest things any car owner can do these days is to make a report to his repair man if a trip to the shop has been a success. We always get the reports of failure, but few owners seem to realize how valuable it is to be reassured that a hunch was correct."

"If the owner never comes back we may assume that our efforts were in vain. When a similar trouble comes along we may be inclined to try another remedy, and that one may not be the right one. A lot of repair work naturally has to be experimental, for car troubles often are close cousins to mystery stories.
Tell us if we solved the problem.
It will go a long way toward helping us help you."

Mr. Russell will answer questions

regarding the safe care and operation of your car.

motioned to me to back up a bit. As I followed his suggestion I found that one of my front wheels was off the course and would have been blocked against a high curb. There they both waited while the car to my left got out of the way so I could back up enough to make the driveway in safety.

What's On Your Mind

Q. We have tried several things in an effort to check a bad rattle which seems to be under the car.
The noise is similar to loose tools in the luggage compartment. H.
McC.

A. How about loose window glass?
Q. The lights flicker whenever I am operating the windshield wiper although the latter is a vacuum operated type. R. F. B.

A. I suspect that the wiper has nothing to do with this, but simply that there is a short circuit whenever it is raining which is also when the wipers happen to be in use.
Check for leakage around the cowling.

Q. I have occasional trouble pulling the shift lever out of low gear when shifting to second. Does this indicate trouble with the transmission itself, and would there be any chance that the engine, clutch and transmission are out of line?
Win. L. K.

A. Somehow I have an idea this is extremely simple. You may not be pressing the clutch pedal down far enough when you shift from low, or you may accelerate too rapidly.

Q. The windshield wiper blades have scratched the glass on my car. I believe you once gave direction for taking off such scratches.
Will you kindly repeat the information? B. M. N.

A. If I gave such directions I do not believe I was very enthusiastic over the results. If the marks are not too deep it may be possible to remove them with jeweler's rouge.
But your chances of success with this are slim.

Q. There's quite a thumping in my car, in spite of checking everything possible. Shock absorbers are all right, and there is no tire unbalance. Have even checked the wheel bearings. H. K. F.

A. One reader had the same trouble. He rechecked the wheel bearings and found one of the front ones, an inner bearing, badly worn.
Q. There's quite a rattle in the clutch of my car. Have had several views on this and wonder why there should be so much disagreement over so simple a unit of the car.
G. T. H.

A. Simple? More people have gone crazy trying to figure out clutch oddities than any other part of the automobile. There are about a dozen reasons for such rattling. In your case probably there's excessive wear on the pilot bearing.

Q. What would cause the battery to overheat? J. M., Jr.

A. An excessively heavy discharge will do it, such as running heater, radio, starter and lights all at the same time.

Mr. Russell will answer questions

has been seeking more funds to use for new books — especially for its young readers. Board members have been contacting school districts throughout the county to ask a place in the school budget for library service to the schools next year.
Funds from the schools will go into the children's book fund for more books for juveniles.

Mrs. Snyder, reporting on recent completion of an inventory of the library's stock of books, said that in the five and a half years the library has been operating, it has lost about 390 volumes or about five per cent of its collection — at the rate of about one per cent per year.
Board members and Mrs. Snyder agreed this was not an unreasonably high figure in view of the fact that some of the books have been paid for or replaced by the borrowers who failed to return the loaned volumes.

Leave for Mrs. Snyder
The board members discussed the approaching need for a new and tation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern street, West Hartford, 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

larger bookmobile to replace "Redwing" which has been in use for five years and has traveled over 20,000 miles.

The directors voted Mrs. Snyder a four-month leave of absence at her own request, beginning July 1.
During her absence Mrs. Mary Wilson, library assistant, will be in charge with the help of part-time workers. Jackie Long and Nancy Lighter are student helpers this summer and Mrs. Hans Langerhans is a part time employee who has been working on inventory and cataloging. Mrs. William Sinn, now a part-time worker, will be employed full time in September when Misses Long and Lighter return to their studies. The present library schedule of service to the public will be continued, it was emphasized.

The board approved a financial statement for submission to the Gettysburg Community Chest.
